The Cleaners does not take any profit you collect during the event. The booth fee is the ONLY money due*

A woman led pop-up event for women looking to create and cultivate the entrepreneurial journey of their dreams.

The Cleaners is providing an opportunity for the next generation of women-lead ventures to sell and showcase their products in the same space. The cleaners is a platform for diverse women to connect and be themselves.

Fourteen+ women will occupy the space to do what they do best. From selling their brand, to showcasing their craft through art and music, the event provides one week of impactful networking, shopping, and inspiration. Our attendees come to feel motivated and surround themselves with those who will help them grow, learn, and grab some fly sh*t!
